

2025 Training course booking form

About the course

All of our courses (except the Intermediate Certification course) are suitable for both beginners and improvers and are run by qualified DSWA instructors who are also professional wallers;

Each course is run over two days from 9:00 a.m. till 4.30 p.m. and covers:

- Health and safety
- Use of tools
- Preparing the site
- Laying foundations
- Building the wall

All our courses are very practical and over the two days, you will take down and rebuild a section of dry stone wall. You can work at your own pace and there is plenty of opportunity for discussion.

All of the tools that you will need are provided.

We strongly recommend the wearing of steel toe-capped boots. Wearing trainers or other light footwear is not acceptable and will result in you being refused participation on the course and forfeit your course fee. DSWA cannot be held liable if injury occurs as a result of inadequate footwear

You will also need to bring your own drinks and lunch.

Places on courses are limited to a maximum of 12 participants per instructor and this ensures that you get plenty of individual attention.

Of course, many people who attend our courses want to continue to improve their walling skills. The best way to do this is to join the Dry Stone Walling Association (currently £45 per year) - you will then be eligible to attend any of our walling practice sessions (run alongside each training course) free of charge.

We may add courses to the programme and/or change venues: please check our web site at www.lancashirebranchdswa.org.uk - this site also gives information on all events open to branch members.

The Branch reserves the right to cancel any course which is not viable – wherever possible, at least one week's notice will be given and participants will be offered a place on an alternative course or given a full refund.

IMPORTANT

To attend this course you must be at least 18 years of age. We strongly recommend the wearing of steel toe-capped boots. Wearing trainers or other light footwear is not acceptable and will result in you being refused participation on the course.

Please reserve place(s) on the course. (If more than 1 place required, please add additional names in the space provided at the bottom of this form).
